EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

The purpose of the Bill is to repeal and replace the Immigration Act with amendments to provide for immigration related matters, a new system for applications leading to permanent residence, for residence and work permit related matters; for the control of entry to the Islands and for employment and carrying on business of people who are not Islanders. The Bill includes significant changes to the products available which will be detailed in Regulations, regarding the qualifications for permanent residence and work permits. The Bill also introduces a Long Term Residence Certificate which shall be granted to investors for a period of 25 years and renewable. This certificate will replace the investment categories for permanent residence and resident permit. The Bill also repeals the Freelancer's Work Permit. The Bill introduces term limits for work permit holders where a term limit shall be introduced after person had held a work permit and has not exercised the opportunity to apply for long term residence in the Islands or that person's application has been unsuccessful. This will require a person to leave the Islands for a period of one year where they may return to start another period.
